FALL 2010 - SUMMER 2015, BACHELOR OF SCIENCE, SIAT

Simon Fraser University, British Columbia

The School of Interaction Arts & Technology teaches students in developing and designing technologies, evaluating the relationship between technology and society. This faculty focuses on design history, human computer interaction through prototyping, and understanding usability methodologies

Related Courses that I have taken:

Human-Computer Interaction and Cognition, Information Design, Design Evaluation
Multimedia Programming for Art and Design, Foundations of Game Design,
Advanced Game Design, Interaction Design Methods, Computational Media,
Internet Computing Technologies, and Special Topics on Web Designs.

SINCE FORVER, TECH ENTHUSIAST

A big lover for the technology involving. I follow technology news and announcements on a daily basis. Would be the first batch of beta testers on any relatively new products.

OCCASIONALLY, GAMER & RUNNER

I keep tracks on the Esport happening in the world. Playing games is part of my hobby and as in running. I found that having breaks in between work and study help refreshing the mind. And the two break time activities I enjoyed the most are gaming and running.
